DETAILED ACTION

Status of the Application

Claims 18-34 are pending.

Applicant's preliminary amendment canceling claims 1-17 and adding new claims 18-34 in a communication filed on 1/6/2005 is acknowledged.

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 18-21, drawn to a nucleic acid encoding a protein with endoribonuclease activity, and a vector comprising said nucleic acid.

Group II, claim(s) 22-24, 33-34, drawn in part to a polypeptide having endoribonuclease activity which comprises SEQ ID NO: 2.

Group III, claim(s) 25-28, drawn to a method for analyzing or detecting biomolecules with a protein having endoribonuclease activity.

Group IV, claim(s) 29, 31, drawn to a method for preparation of a pharmaceutical kit, wherein said kit comprises a protein having endoribonuclease activity.

Group V, claim(s) 30, 32, drawn to a method for synthesizing biological macromolecules with a protein having endoribonuclease activity.

Art Unit: 1652

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-V do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

3. According to PCT Rule 13.2, unity of invention exists only when the shared same or corresponding special technical feature is a contribution over the prior art. The inventions listed as Groups I-VII do not relate to a single general inventive concept because they lack the same or corresponding special technical feature. The technical feature linking Groups I-V is a polypeptide having endoribonuclease activity, wherein said activity is characterized in that it is polyU and single filament specific, Mn^{++} ion-dependent and able to release 2'-3' cyclic phosphate and 5'OH end cleavage products, which is shown by Caffarelli et al. (Biochemical and Biophysical Research Communications 233:514-517, 1997; cited in the IDS) to lack novelty or inventive step since Caffarelli et al. teach a novel Mn^{++} ion-dependent endoribonuclease which is polyU specific, single filament specific (RNA) and releases 2'-3' cyclic phosphate and 5'OH end cleavage products, as evidenced by Laneve et al. (J. Biol. Chem. 278(15):13026-13032, 2003; cited in the IDS). The endoribonuclease first isolated by Caffarelli et al. was further characterized by Laneve et al. Therefore, the technical feature linking Groups I-V does not make a contribution over the prior art and the claimed inventions do not meet the requirement of unity of invention under PCT Rule 13.2.

4. The polynucleotide of Group I does not have unity of invention with the methods of Groups III-V in view of the fact that the methods of Groups III-V are methods of use of the polypeptide of Group II.

5. The Examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

6. In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement can be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

9. Information regarding the status of an application may be obtained from the Patent Application Information Retrieval (PMR) system. Status information for published applications may be obtained from either Private PAIR or Public PAIR. Status information for unpublished applications is available through Private PAIR only.
